

Meet Shirlee Ramos!

Ms. Ramos will be teaching Special Education at Okanogan Middle School in the fall. She recently finished her teaching degree at Eastern Washington University. Shirlee wants to develop resilient, well-rounded, unique, human beings who can excel in all of life's diverse environments. She will strive to be a compassionate, motivated, and dedicated educator ready to share her commitment to providing a safe, inviting, environment for students to learn. The Middle School staff is excited to help her begin her teaching journey as an Okanogan Bullpup!

