ANNOUNCEMENTS:

For those of you interested in going into the Marines, there will be a Marine recruiter here at lunch in the cafeteria on Thursday, January 18th.

Hey Key Clubbers! We have a meeting today! You know where and when. I hope to see you all there!

Ice Cream Announcement - I scream, you scream, we all scream for ice cream! High schoolers, we have a great selection of delicious treats to enjoy every day! See you at Lunch!

Message came in the end of the day Thursday that the Loop Loop will NOT be open this Saturday. Sorry, our ski bus will NOT be running.

Attention all and Perspective FBLA members: Let Mr. Haley Know if you are going to the Wenatchee Wild Hockey Game on January 16th. In addition, we are registering for our Regional competition and Mr. Haley needs to know all your events you wish to participate in so he can register you.

FBLA will be meeting TODAY Friday 1/12, and every Friday, to work on your events.

As the weather is getting colder, there is a substantial need in our community for warm clothing. We are accepting gently used or new coats or hoodies!! There is a clothing rack by the cafeteria doors to donate your warm clothing!! Thank you, from the NHS!

CLUBS:

D & D meets in room 110 (Miss Wiesner's room) TODAY from 3:15 to 4:30. Get ready to play your favorite RPG!

Attention Tribal Students: You should have received a packet for Nature Immersion. This will be a fun, monthly field day where we will enhance our cultural knowledge with exposure and hands-on experiences. Forms can be turned directly into Mrs. Carpenter or to the office. This opportunity is open to the first 15-20 students who bring back their packet, so return it as soon as possible.

As the weather is getting colder, there is a substantial need in our community for warm clothing. We are accepting gently used or new coats or hoodies!! There is a clothing rack by the cafeteria doors to donate your warm clothing!! Thank you from the National Honor Society!
